Over the years, I have realized the importance of selecting vendors and products that naturally carry a cleaner, clearer vibration. One of the things that I noticed is that who I buy from, plays a major role in the energy of the item when it comes in. I began to feel the joy or the distress of the person making the item. How they are treated as an employee, are they happy where they work and more. So I started to really look at my suppliers and decided to support those who have kindness in their heart, integri-ty and above all, treat their employees well. Even though it takes time and energy, I love being able to provide you with the best that I can! Blessings to All, Aitreyia

CLEANSING

LETTING GO OF STUCK ENERGIES THAT CREATE DISHARMONY IN OUR LIVES!

Whether cleansing a space, your aura or spirits that may be hanging around the home, cleansing is something that one should do on a regular basis in order to stay clean & clear. You can cleanse your home, work, food, land and more. The clearer you become, the easier it is to stay in harmony, balanced and overall deal with the every day stress.

Over the years a home will build up negative energy. This is due to arguments, negative thoughts, suicides or any other "bad" occurrences that may have happened on the property. Things may have happened that you're not aware of. It's always a good idea to cleanse your home whether it be a place you've lived in for years or somewhere you've just moved into.

Smudging is a ceremony practiced by some Indigenous peoples of the Americas that involves the burning of sacred herbs, in some cases for spiritual cleansing or blessing. While the particulars of the ceremonies, and the herbs used can vary widely between tribes and nations, many use forms of sage (for example, common sage or white sage) and cedar that is local to their region.

These are exciting times we are living in, the earth energies are changing rapidly, we are leaving behind the age of 'Pisces' and moving into what is most frequently called the age of 'Aquarius' or the ascension.

As this shift is taking place, we are all having to adjust to the changing vibrations and nothing will feel as safe or comfortable as it did before. Now more than ever as well as keeping our mind's focused, it is essential to keep our aura (energy field) as clear and strong as possible. It takes time to adapt to the changes and for those of you that are more psychically 'tuned in' (often referred to as light workers) the changes will be happening very rapidly - many of you will be feeling as though you do not know where you 'belong' any more, you may find the things you used to enjoy doing do not bring you any satisfaction anymore - its similar to living in the same house for many years with familiar ornaments etc. and then waking up one day to find the color scheme is totally different and the ornaments are missing. It is the same house, same room, but everything feels different and something inside is missing, it may not feel like home anymore.

CALIFORNIA MEDIUM RETURNS TO SPIRITSCHILD!

Frances Pullin returns to Tucson bringing messages from Amadeus Mozart following a channeling session at the Sanctuary Wellness Center in Tustin, CA. Raised in Tucson, Frances moved to California in 1978 after her marriage to Kevin. They moved up and down the west coast finally settling in Orange County 30 years ago. Together they raised four children. Michelle and Damon from Frances' first marriage and Kevin and Sean from this new union. They celebrate 41 years of marriage on October 28th.

in a parlor playing the violin and her younger brother, Amadeus sitting at the piano. Tears rolled down her cheeks at this verification.

After the untimely death of Damon at age 33 of a heart attack, Frances found herself surrounded with spiritual people who helped to bring solace back into her life. She began meditation which soothed her soul. Ready to dig further into this new way of life, she also took a class in automatic writing where she first saw the image of Amadeus in. Following this introduction, she learned how to channel in 2007. Stepping out of the way of her own ego, she allowed the spirit of Amadeus to come through her voice box.

Three years ago, she traveled to Prague and then to Salzburg to visit the house she and Amadeus grew up in and finally, visited her grave site when she was known as Nannrl. As she stood there, she distinctively heard a woman's voice say, "You have the energy, there is nothing here for you". She realized she had come full circle and the verification of her energy as Nannrl had been confirmed for the last time.

Why is Amadeus with her? He has explained that he has come to this lifetime to repay the Karma from that old lifetime together. He talks through her to help her bring her life's purpose to all. She is to teach love of self.

During a talk at a holistic fair, Frances was informed by Amadeus that he was her brother in the lifetime of Amadeus Mozart. She was Nannrl Mozart his older sister. Completely stunned, she tried to deny the information, but he persisted and she brought the information to the audience.

This love of self, had to be learned by her. She had to process what it means to love herself first so she could teach it to others. She has accomplished this and will reveal that journey in her new book, "Loving the Me in Me; Grounding in the Love Vibration".

Months followed and Frances made the decision to allow a past-life regression with her friend who is a hypnotherapist. There in the black recliner, she saw herself

Tarot

Tarot is a mystical and magical system of divination used for self-understanding, mastery of life lessons, and predicting the future. The Cards are pictures that contain hidden symbolic knowledge or occult information that a trained student can see, understand, and interpret. Each card contains a picture that emanates energy.

Learning to read Tarot cards takes a combination of knowledge and intuition that anyone can develop. Follow the steps below to hone your abilities as a Tarot card reader to offer insight and guidance to those who seek it or to aid in your own personal growth.

Choose a deck of cards. Different tarot decks use different symbology. One of the most widely used and most widely taught is the Rider-Waite Tarot or one of its clones--the Morgan-Greer Tarot, for example. Still, it's important that a tarot deck speak to you, so look through different ones and read reviews to learn what people like and dislike about them.

Classic and popular decks are always in circulation, but new tarot decks are published each year so there is an ever-changing inventory to look through.

The top five tarot decks of all time are: Deviant Moon Tarot, Rider-Waite Tarot, Aleister Crowley Thoth Tarot, DruidCraft Tarot and Shadowscapes Tarot.[1]

Understand how the deck works. The Tarot deck is made up of 78 cards: 22 major arcana and 56 minor arcana. You must memorize and be able to identify each card as well as give two divinatory meanings for each card.

Major arcana. The Tarot archetypes represented in the major arcana are pictures that represent life and the stages and experiences we all go through. It's meant to be the story of one's journey through life starting as The Fool (young, pure energy in spirit form) moving through events and cycles and finding completion in The World (the end of our life cycle).

Minor arcana. Minor Cards describes the people, events, feelings and circumstances we encounter on our personal "Fool's Journey." [2] It represents events that are within the control of the individual and indicate how you do something. The minor arcana fairly closely resembles a traditional deck of playing cards. It's made up of four suits, and each of these suits are associated with one of the elements: Wands (Fire), Cups (Water), Pentacles (Earth) and Swords (Air). There are also the Queen, King and Knight (or Jack) of each suit plus the addition of Pages or Princesses.

Memorizing all 78 cards will take time. Try working with a partner who can quiz you using the deck as a kind of set of flash cards.

“Trance mediumship” is often seen as a form of mental mediumship. Most trance mediums remain conscious during a communication period, wherein a spirit uses the medium’s mind to communicate. The spirit or spirits using the medium’s mind influences the mind with the thoughts being conveyed. The medium allows the ego to step aside for the message to be delivered.

Mediumship is the practice of purportedly mediating communication between spirits of the dead and living human beings. Practitioners are known as “mediums.” There are different types of mediumship, including spirit channeling and ouija.. Humans have been fascinated with contacting the dead since the beginning of human existence.

Humans have been fascinated with contacting the dead since the beginning of human existence. Cave paintings by indigenous Australians date back 28,000 years, some depicting skulls, bones, spirits and the afterlife.[3] Other cave paintings in Indonesia date back a further 10,000 years. [4] Mediumship gained popularity during the nineteenth century, when ouija boards were used by the upper classes as a source of entertainment. Investigations during this period revealed widespread fraud with some practitioners employing techniques used by stage magicians and the practice began to lose credibility. [5][6] Fraud is still rife in the medium/psychic industry, with cases of deception and trickery being discovered to this day.[7]

Several different variants of mediumship exist; arguably the best-known forms involve a spirit purportedly taking control of a medium’s voice and using it to relay a message, or where the medium simply “hears” the message and passes it on. Other forms involve materializations of the spirit or the presence of a voice, and telekinetic activity.
